

IBM Impact 2007 WebSphere event Coming to Coral Gables, FL!

Join us for an SOA event that will bring you closer to achieving your business vision

You're invited to Impact Comes to You — an event that brings the value of the IBM Impact 2007 conference - which was held in Orlando, Florida on May 20-25 - in a local venue, to business and IT professionals and executives. I-CTY promises to deliver an excellent opportunity to gain insights, share information, attend breakout sessions and network with peers to discuss the latest innovations, products, services and solutions in Service Oriented Architecture (SOA) and the IBM WebSphere® platform.

We have an excellent lineup of topics, all of which were rated as top or outstanding by your peers during the IBM Impact 2007 conference and one of our customers sharing their experience

- * SOA Implementation Best Practices
- * Using BPM to move your business to a Process Platform on SOA
- * Accelerate time to value with SOA connectivity
- * Customer Reference
- * Maximize SOA With Flexible Infrastructure and Management
- * How to Achieve ROI on SOA
